NEWS RELEASES

CABLE OPERATORS AUTHORIZED TO PASS THROUGH INCREASES IN FRANCHISE FEES AND REGULATORY FEES - MM DOCKET NO. 92-266 (Report No. DC-2657, Action in Docket Case)

The Commission has amended its price cap rules governing regulated cable service rates to permit cable operators to revise rates for regulated cable services to reflect increases in franchise fees without receiving prior franchising authority or Commission approval. It also amended the rules to permit external cost treatment of Commission regulatory fees applicable to cable operators and to permit these fees to be passed through to subscribers under the same procedures as increases in franchise fees.

Action by the Commission September 30 by Fourth Order on Reconsideration (FCC 94-254).
